SILVERTON SETS SAIL TO THE LAND OF WARM BEER

All the gang were down by the docks to see the D&RGW injuns being loaded onboard S.S.Durango for the voyage to "Merry Auld" England, a dangerous ocean trip fraught with the thought of sharks & sea monsters from the deep. Madam Lash oversees the loading of the K-27 while Sheriff keeps his hand on his weapon jest in case of trouble? They are all under strict destructions & Miss Behavior has bin left behind so themz all on a truce till they git to visit the Queen in her palace. Madam wants to see wot sort of palace it is & sez "My Palace will take sum beating".

The S.S. Durango has set sail as we go to print & the Outlaw & posse are jest about to arrive on the udder side of the Atlantic. Who woody taut this Great Train Chase was a goin' overseas?

The ships whore'll has bin stocked with plenty of the good Red Mountain Moonshine & of coor's DW's so our Little Folk won't be without the comforts of home. Professor has lots of books to read, Mayor has his speeches to writ out fer Her Migesty, Roody has some little furry friends down below, no he ain't scratchin', wez mean them big mice onboard! Inspector is keeping watch on deck, but Toyman sez he ain't got a time-piece so how can he? ! Spike has a hammock swingin' between the spars & Madam told Sheriff theys nautical & he sez he loves to tickle her. Land-lubber!

Themz all lookin' forward to showing the Queen the famous "Fourteener" Coloradie's world record gold nugget that ticknickly belongs to Outlaw seemin' he stole it along with the train full of DW's, howsumever, we allz nose it writefooly belongs to the town of Silverton & its folks.
